

37 He said to him, "'You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind.' 38 This is the greatest and first commandment. 39 And a second is like it: 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.' 40 On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets
Matthew 22:34-40

The Importance of Being Earnest

Jack and Algernon are wealthy London bachelors who each live a double life, creating elaborate deceptions in order to have some balance in their life. John falls in love with Algernon's cousin Gwendolen, and, after discovering John's secret, Algernon falls for John's ward Cecily. The two gentlemen and ladies are in for more than they ever anticipated when the formidable Lady Bracknell, Gwendolen's mother, begins digging around to uncover the truth. Full of wit and charm, Oscar Wilde's comedic masterpiece is a "trivial comedy for serious people."

Join your CTK friends at Summer-Stage's performance of "The Importance of Being Earnest" at Lapham Peak on Saturday, June 25, 7:30 p.m.- 10:30. Bring your own chair or rent one. You may also carry in food and drinks or purchase them from their concession stand. Purchase tickets online at www.Summer-Stage.org, at their downtown office in Delafield, or at the venue one hour prior to the event.
