Counting Our Blessings

The staff at Christ the King wishes you and your family a blessed Thanksgiving filled with joy.

1 Thessalonians 5:18

...give thanks in all circumstances; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.

Join us this Sunday November 29 for the 1st Sunday of Advent. We will start with 8:15 a.m. worship, followed by Christian Education Hour at 9:30. We are featuring a hot cocoa bar and making wreaths together; it will be a special time for the whole family. After the 10:45 worship service we have planned a Picnic Basket Lunch and Gingerbread House building, if you have not signed up yet, call the office no later than Wednesday. 262-646-2343.

Come to the Feast!

Join us on Wednesday, November 25, 2015, when Christ the King Lutheran Church hosts a Thanksgiving feast from 3:00 to 6:30 p.m.. This event is a joint venture with St. Joan of Arc Catholic Church, Nashotah House Theological Seminary and St. John's Northwestern Military Academy.

Everyone is welcome to attend the dinner, with a special outreach to various groups / organizations, including, but not limited to, members of the military (past and present) and their families, elderly, homeless, disabled, family / women's / men's shelters, rehab facilities and people who may just be looking for good food, companionship and conversation.

This event will be followed by an Ecumenical Service at St. Joan of Arc Catholic Church at 7:00 p.m.
